Merry Christmas

December 2020

head and laugh - which he Robitini - He has come > first got him. We have 5

<We have bunnies!! This is Isaac and Wesley. Isaac was abandoned at the hospital almost 2 years ago. I got to name him and we had to guess at his age. He is a sweet, sweet boy. Wesley, I've had since he was 18 months old right after the earthquake. He's now 12!!! Attends an American Christian School.

>Our Samuel Mark Adams - Sammy was found near death in the garbage. Thank You, Jesus, for this boy. I took him to Port au Prince for hydrocephalus surgery and look at him now. He can't walk but he can hold up his does a lot!!!!

such a long way. He couldn't communicate at all when we kids with cerebral palsy but they are different kids. He still can't speak, but he can understand pretty well now and he communicates with hand signs. He's really funny and does many jobs around the orphanage. There is no school for him to attend, he will always be with us and that's a blessing!

>Missoul is my favorite nanny and has been with us the longest. She's the only one that doesn't live with us and travels by a motorcycle taxi from the mountains. I give her extra money sometimes because she has her family to support and is such an extremely hard worker. She brings her youngest daughter with her to work.

<The kids love simple things like marbles, Uno, dominos, skip bo, puzzles and just to sit and color.

<Sawrens - our oldest and wants to become a chef. He does very well academically and is a leader around the orphanage. Both parents died when he was very young. He is the one that made the Christmas sign, got everyone together and had someone take the photo.

<This is Bidiory when he was a child before his surgery. This is how he walked, on all fours until he was 8 years old.

The next picture is of his feet.

The picture on the far left is how he looks today. He is a very happy boy who has a bright future.

Merry Blessed Christmas and the Best New Year to all of you.

This has been such a devastating year for everyone, but, knowing God is on the throne and He's in control gives us such peace if we focus on HIM. HE has continued to be so faithful and blessed us so much way beyond what I imagined. I really sincerely want to thank all of you for your prayers and giving. In these tough times our mission has survived and is doing well.

I just keep thanking HIM in awe. So please know that I am so grateful for what you have done for the kids and the employees. The kids are great and we have wonderful employees that get along so well and I always tell them we're not an orphanage we are a family.

A faithful anonymous giver is willing to do a match pledge and will donate up to $2,500 through January. as always we appreciate and love your generosity.

Love to all, Ann
